

Process Profile

Process Id: D/F_P27
Name of the process: Ad Personam Pricing
Vision: The objective of the current procedure is the receipt and subsequent changes of Ad Personam prices for each specific product. Indeed, from an organizational perspective the mission is the delivery of unique luxury products in the context of fashion industry. Therefore, every product can be customized and tailored for each specific customer. This is the reason why this procedure contains in the name the construct “ad personam”. Clearly, if the product can be modified in order to satisfy customer desires, even the pricing must reflect these changes, and it will vary accordingly. As a matter of fact, the current procedure defines and describes the activities that are required to maintain updated the Ad Personam prices that can vary also depending on the specific region, so also the Retailers are informed regarding the prices options.
Process Owner: Chief of Finance Controlling department
Customer of the process: Consumer
Expectation of customer: Great satisfaction and efficiency in terms of response time. Since the process manages luxury products, the customer does not expect to receive economic proposal, but he/she demands full attention and cure.
Outcome: Definition of the Ad Personam pricing, so that the unique product can be delivered.
Trigger: Need of customized fashion product is caught.
First activity: Request tba
Last activity: Update of pricing in SAP
Interface inbound: D/PP_P44 Ad Personam Process Management (After Sales process)
Interface outbound: -
Required Resources: • Human resources: Financial Controller, Cost & Quality Employee, After Sales Employee • Information, documents, know-how: financial rules, costs documentation, high quality guidelines for luxury products, proper and suitable communication management to consumer • Work environment, materials, infrastructure: General Information Management System and SAP
Process Performance Measures: • Cycle Time and Response Time with respect to final customer • Customer satisfaction • Customer Retention Rate • Operational Costs